OUR ENORMOUS BUSINESS HAS BEEN BUILT UP BY THE STRICT APPLICATION OF 3 RULES:

We drop out entirely the large profits of the Middleman, or Retailer, and give the advantage to the consumer, who gets one pound or one thousand pounds at the lowest wholesale rates. No. 1. We supply only PURE FOOD PRODUCTS and HIGH GRADE GOODS GENERALLY.

No. 3. We buy and sell in such large quantities that we never carry any old stock, and we guarantee absolutely that all goods we send out are clean and fresh.

THERE IS NO BETTER WAY TO MAKE MONEY FASTER THAN BY SAVING IT.
THERE IS NO SURER WAY OF SAVING MONEY THAN BUYING OROCERIES FROM FIRST HANDS.
THE NEARER THE CONSUMER GETS TO THE PRODUCER OR FOUNTAIN OF SUPPLY THE GREATER IS HIS ADVANTAGE.
FOR THESE REASONS WE MAKE THE CONSUMER'S DOLLAR BIGGER AND GO FARTHER THAN ANY PLACE ON EARTH.

are of the smallest compass, and tuking many samples, and the payment of a few at each inspection, the aggregate loss of the American meat packer and exporter is very large. For several years the state department at interests has a sought to secure an attenuation of the emitternal by founded upon fear that infected meat might be lumported into Germany, notwithstanding the fact that the testimony of all the experts and the statistics went to show that not a single case of trichinosis, the most direaded of swine disease, could be traced to an American hog. Finally Ambassador White secured the promise of what he regarded as a great amelioration of the Germany inspection laws, and it is this, embodied in the shape of a bill prepared for the action of the reichstag, which is reported to have a roused the opposition of the sausage interest in American. What the department has obtained, for one thing, is substitution of one general powernmental inspection for the numerous local and municipal inspections to which American mean production of the premises is not clearly perceived by the officials here but the state and agricultural department of course will do their best to protect all mercian interests.
